PRIORS ON APPLICATION THE HONGKONG DISPEL Betablished A.D. 1841 At Gough Hill, The Peak, on the 25th

On the 14th January, as the Church the Good Shepherd, Lee, Kent, by the Rev John A. Owen, B.A., Vicar, assisted the Rev. G. O. F. Griffiths, Vicar, of Barnabas, Beckenham, HEBBERT GLOROE DOWLER, of Hongkoug, to MAUD MARION, of Lee, Kent.

HONGKONG, THURSDAY, JANUARY 26, 1893.

came before the Legislative Council some seven or eight months ago, the difficulties in the way of attaining the object for which the measure is understood to be framed were seen to be so serious that it was deemed advisable to postpone the second reading till the following session. In the meantime it was hoped that some if not the whole of the difficulties would settle themselves. The Senior Unofficial Member was sanguine that some arrangement having that very desirable consummation would ing to complete a large increase if found be arrived at. At yesterday's meeting of necessary. Lord Cromer was instructed to Council, when the second reading of inform the Khedire that this step is conthe Bill was again moved, it became evident that the anticipated 'arrangement' had not been made, and that the peans. difficulties in the way of a satisfactory division of the sum of $180,000 were as numerous and as serious as ever The result was another postponement in order that the wharf-owners may have what is understood to be their last chance of agreeing among themselves as to the division of the sum which has been set aside as part compensation to them for the cost entailed doned. wanted, and initial letter for quality in the removal and reconstruction of their whorves in connection with the Praya Reclamation. Failing any such agreement, the Bill will be proceeded with at next meeting, and the allotment of the $180,000 will be made in accordance with the terms of the Ordinance. There was nothing in the long-winded dissertation of the Attorney General at last meeting of Council which would induce the wharf-owners to take a more favourable view of the Bill than they took at first, and, indeed anything of that kind was hardly to be expected. It appears to be Mi Goodman's opinion that the joy of the wharf-owners in being allowed anything at all by way of compensation ought to be so exceeding great that there should be no question about an equitable division of the total amount set aside for compensation. Nevertheless, he has 1.00 prepared a Bill which he thinks will give justice and satisfaction to every body concerned. The chief objects which 1.10 he had in view, be tells us, in framing this Bill were to facilitate and accelerate the payment of the money to the persons who are entitled to it, and that there should be as little litigation as possible. 1 doz. 2 doz. The Director of Public Works is to have the unenviable task of opportioning the money. So far, good. But. says the Attorney General, there are 7.50 it, certainly do not try to avoid litigation, and for the benefit of such, if they think they are not dealt with fairly and feel that they must have some litigation 18.00 about it before they are satisfied, then 20.00 means are provided for them to appeal. His anxiety to give satisfaction all round seems here to have been too much for his desire to avoid litigation. The litigious wharf-owner applies to the Supreme Court in Summary Jurisdiction, within three months of the time when the apportionment is made, and if he succeeds in convincing the Court that he is entitled to a larger sum than has been allotted to him and if that sum added to the rest should make the total exceed $180,000, as, of course, it asks if anything could be fairer than Bishop Burdon. letter from the firm of Loeve and Co. to There were present-Mr Justice Fielding Clarke, Mr Justice Ackroyd, Hon. W. M. Goodman and Mrs Goodman, Hon. F. A. Nov. 20, 1886, when the Sonnaebele affair Cooper, Mr Charles Ford, Mr Granvill Sharp, Mr George Dodwell, Mr Alford Roy. R. F. Cobbold, Mr. J. R. Crook, Mr. Sufford Northcote, Mr G. Piercy, Mr A Shelton Hopper, &c. The balance sheet for the past year and offertory account were submitted. The balance shoot showed that when the year commenced a balance of $125.28 was due the bank. The total rescipts amounted to $7187.98, and there was a balance in bank at the credit of the Church Body at the close of the year 82146.51. On the motion of Mr Justice Ularke, seconded by Mr Alford, the accounts were passed unanimously. After ballot the following gentlemen were elected members of the Church Body-Mr Justice Clarke, Mr Charles Ford, Hon. F. A. Cooper, Mr Justice Ackroyd, Hon. J. Keswick, and Mr. Geo. Dodwell. Hon. W. M. Goodman was elected on the first ballot, but in declining he expressed the opinion there was an undue preponder. ance of the Government officials, and it was on a second ballot that Mr Dodwell was elected. Mr Justice Ackroyd moved and Mr Alford accorded the adoption of regulations that had been drawn up by the Church Body. Some desultory conversation took place on the subject of charging fees for the erection of memorials within the edifice, with special reference to the proposal to place the Bokhara memorial there, and Mr Justice Ackroyd pointed out that under the now regulations, while the maximum fee was $100, it was not compulsory for the Church Body to exact any fee at all. Under the old regulations the Church Body was obliged to charge any sum between $100 and $1000. The regulations were adopted. Mr S. C. Bird was elected auditor for the current year. Mr Granville Sharp suggested that Cathodral should be insured against fire, and was informed that the Church Body intended to consider that subject at the close of the public meeting. Before the meeting separated Mr Junice Ackroyd, in a few wellchosen words expressed the thanks of the Church Body and the congregation to his Lordship the Bishop for so generously undertaking to discharge the ininisterial duties from the time of Rev. Mr Hamilton's departure till Rev. Mr Cobbold's arrival. They know his Lordship had many duties But we are yet on debatable ground. The of his own to perform, and they therefore could approdate the more his kindness on this occasion. He also thanked him for his services in connection with the new constitution of the Cathedral. Bishop Burdon said it was a great pleasure to him to be able to render any services, but it was more than a pleasure it was his duty. The position of Bishop in Hongkong was such that he had no choice. It was his place, as far as he possibly could, to supply any church that might be without ministerial help. He had had the pleasure of doing so for every congregation they had in the Colony, and he was very thankful to be able to perform the duty for his fallow-country men.

Mr Way Lee maintains that the ples set up by our Australian cousins that the Chinese work too cheaply is altogether fallacious.
